Foreword

In presenting the Senior Yearbook of 1932, we, the members of the Senior Class of Petoskey High School, have endeavored to give a true picture of our class and its activities.

It is our sincere desire that, as you peruse the pages of this book, you may live again the happy times that were yours in Petoskey High School.

Seniors In Athletics

The class of 1932 has not only excelled in scholarship but has also been outstanding in athletics.

“Doug” Wells, all-northern halfback, showed his ability in every football game for four years. For three years he chased around the basketball court, to say nothing of the four years he chased other people around the track.

Burton Hooker, Petoskey’s fleet trackman, also showed to good advantage on the gridiron when his sweeping end runs thrilled the crowds.

“Bill” Parks, captain of basketball in his senior year, led his team to victory. He was Northern Michigan’s outstanding basketball player. He also played guard on the football team for three years.

Frank Dombroski, star center of the 1932 basketball team, also played a brilliant game of halfback for three years. In track Dombroski has been counted upon to knock high hurdles over with the best of them.

“Ed.” Wodek, known as the “arch-duke of the North,” played his usual good game of guard in basketball and football for three seasons. He also starred in the 440 and relay.

Knox Johnson is not only handsome but has also proved his athletic ability in football, basketball and track. Knox recently pole vaulted 10 feet 10 1-2 inches to break the previous Class B record at Cadillac.

Other seniors who distinguished themselves in athletics are: Henry Harmon, in football and track; Charles Kleinhenz, football and track; Lyle Parrish, basketball and football; Joseph Gibes, football and track; Ralph Coveyou, football and track; and Louis Barnes, in basketball, football and track.

All success in athletics is due to the untiring efforts of Coach Wolgast and Assistant Coach Bartlett. Upon Mr. Wolgast's arrival he was forced to develop a winning football team from a group of inexperienced players and he succeeded admirably.

Senior Play

"Skidding," a three act comedy written by Aurania Rouveral, was presented on May 13, 1932, in the High School Auditorium by the seniors of '32. The cast was well chosen and directed by Mrs. R. A. Steeh. Mr. Rogers arranged the stage setting.

The plot of the play was based on present day American life. Marion Hardy, Rosalie Steeh, took the part of a young girl, who had just graduated from a law school. She had fallen in love with Wayne Trenton III, Knox Johnson, who was the son of wealthy parents, and very insistent that Marion should marry him immediately. Mrs. Hardy, Kathryn Kopp, Marion's mother, helped clear the tangled situation brought on by her other two daughters, Myra Wilcox, Jean Snyder, and Estelle Campbell, Mary Ella Du Chaine. Much amusement and fine acting were shown by Marion's "kid brother," Robert Hayes, who was having his first "case," and also by old maid Aunt Millie, Louise Hinkley. Mr. Hardy, John Rine, was a pessimistic lawyer, and Grandpa Hardy, Milton Carter, the quiet old gentleman who adored Marion. Mr. Stubbins, Earl Lawrence, took the part of Mr. Hardy's advisor until Marion stepped in. She was determined not to let her love affair with Wayne interrupt her political career. She therefore went ahead, against his wishes and aided her father in his nomination campaign. Having become a recognized politician, she was offered a fine position but at the last gave up her whole career and married Wayne Trenton III.

The audience was one of the largest to attend a class play in recent years. About seventy-five dollars was added to the class treasury.
The honor of being valedictorian of the graduating class of 1932 was conferred upon Doris Reber. She has attained a four year high school average of 98.00, with a straight A record. Earl Lawrence, with an average of 97.60, was named salutatorian of the class.

Doris has carried a regular academic course throughout her high school career. She was a member of the debating team in her senior year, and was prominent in the activities of her class, the Dramatic Club and Girl Reserves.

Earl also carried an academic course. He was a member of the debating team in 1929-30, president of the Hi-Y in his senior year, and a member of the Student Council and band.

The averages of this class are considerably higher than those of previous classes. This is the first time a perfect scholastic record has been made in recent years. Those with the next ten highest averages are:

National Honor Society

The Petosega Chapter of the National Honor Society was established in 1926 and since that time has initiated to membership ninety-seven students. Miss Beebe is faculty advisor.

Only fifteen per cent of a class is eligible for membership, five per cent chosen during the junior year and ten per cent in the senior year. This fifteen per cent is selected from the twenty-five per cent highest in scholarship. They are picked by the faculty and the society members on a basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service.

During the year 31-32 eleven new members were chosen, six from the senior class and five from the juniors. Seniors elected were: Mabel Johansen, Helen Moore, Kathryn Kopp, Dorothy Le Roy, Melvin Knight and Norman Reed. Other senior members who were elected last year are: Doris Reber, Louise Hinkley, Thomas Fochtman and Earl Lawrence. Junior members are: Mildred Behan, Maxine White, Doris Frederickson, Wendell Rehkopf and Gordon Guillaume.

J-Hop

Many gold fish, sea horses, an octopus and about four hundred people enjoyed the hospitality of the junior class at the annual J-Hop given in honor of the seniors, May 27, in the high school gymnasium.

The gym was cleverly decorated to give a very realistic under-sea atmosphere, which fairly made one's head swim. The marine colors of orange, green and yellow, were effectively carried out in making an attractive setting for the dance.

Fraser and Anderson’s Cherrylanders orchestra softly gurgled from the fore-deck of a sunken ship.

The junior class president, Mildred Behan, and her partner, Clarence White, led the grand march. Burton Hooker, the senior class president, and his guest, Margaret Lyons, were second in line. Mr. and Mrs. Spitler, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Treloar and Mr. and Mrs. Wolgast acted as chaperones.

The junior banquet which consisted of a delicious five-course dinner was served at the Perry Hotel at seven o’clock. The dining room was decorated in orange and white. Mr. Wolgast acted as toastmaster and Mildred Behan, Burton Hooker, Elden Riley and Ralph Taylor gave short speeches.
Class Election

Louise Hinkley

Knox Johnson

One of the traditions of Petoskey high school is the senior election held in the spring of each year.

The class of 1932 selected Jane Edwards and Burton Hooker as the most popular of the seniors. Jane was the 1932 Winter Queen and has been prominent in girls' athletics and class activities. Burton is class president, a prominent athlete, and has taken a leading part in all the money-raising ventures of his class.

Louise Hinkley's big brown eyes, dark hair and fair skin won for her the distinction of being elected the best looking girl. Knox Johnson was chosen the most handsome boy. He is tall, has dark blue eyes and black hair.

The other choices were:

Class History

In the fall of 1928, after having successfully, or otherwise, completed the requirements of the eighth grade, our class entered into our high school career under the leadership of Earl Lawrence as freshman class president. During that year the class had a hard times party held in the old gymnasium. Our class advisor was Mr. Le Cronier.

We enrolled as sophomores and elected Thomas Fochtman for president and Miss Furman as advisor. Our annual class party was held at Camp Daggett.

As we entered into our junior year we were confronted by the many duties that a junior class must perform. We successfully presented our play, "The Charm School." We then put on the annual Hop, which was held in the gymnasium with "Fuller's Lucky Seven" playing the music. The Hop was given in the form of a night club called "The White-Owl Night Club." There was dancing between the courses of the dinner. Louise Hinkley was president and Mr. Rogers our class advisor.

Our last year finds us under the capable management of Burton Hooker and class advisor, Mr. Rogers. This year the class put on "Skidding," which was directed by Mrs. Rosalie Stech as our annual play.

A few of the members of our class have successfully distinguished themselves in some activity. Doris Reber received the honor of being valedictorian and Earl Lawrence was appointed salutatorian. In forensics Earl Lawrence, Doris Reber, Helen Moore and John Rine have been active. All of the seniors have distinguished themselves in at least one of the following organizations: Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, Physical Education, Band, Orchestra, Senior Chorus, Football, Basketball, Tennis, Golf, Dramatics, and Baseball.

Looking back over our four years we believe we have reason to be proud of our class and its achievements.

Speaker—“And where, I ask you, is Julius Caesar? Where is Attila the Hun? Where are Moses, Oliver Cromwell, Charlemagne, Hannibal?”

“Stand up, boys, so’s the gentleman can see you.”
Jokes

"Well, can't you decide? It never takes me more than a minute to make up my mind."

"I'm not surprised; it shouldn't take anyone more than a minute to make up your mind."

First cannibal: "The chief has hay fever."

Second ditto: "Serves him right. We warned him not to eat that grass widow."

Pop: "There's nothing worse than to be old and bent."

Son: "Yes there is, Dad."

Pop: "What is it?"

Son: "To be young and broke."

"Is your love for me dead?"

"No, but it's very ill."

Mrs. Stech: "If a number of cattle is called a herd, and a number of sheep is called a flock, what is a number of camels called?"

Ed. Wodek: "A carton."
