Honor Society

The National Honor Society, an organization extending through the United States, has a branch in Petoskey High School called the Petosega Chapter.

Since the charter was issued in 1925 one hundred and five members have been admitted from this school. Miss Beebe has acted as advisor for the society since it started.

The society upholds as its cardinal principles these four objectives: character, scholarship, leadership, service.

To be eligible for this society one must be in the upper twenty-five per cent of his class in scholarship.

Only fifteen per cent of a class is eligible for membership, five per cent chosen during junior year and ten per cent during their senior year. Those elected in their junior year were: Mildred Behan, Maxine White, Doris Frederickson, Wendell Rehkopf, Gordon Guillaume.

One meeting was held at which the remaining ten per cent were elected. They were: Isabel Starmer, Lucille Neuman, Zelda Fryman, Betty Schneider, Arlie Morford, Cleveland Angus, Paul Engle, Edward Fochtman.

Initiation of the new members as well as members of the junior class is held early in May.

Class History

We hopped off in September, 1929, and had as pilot Mrs. Stech with Ruth Mary Rigg as head mechanic and Marian Knowlton and John Braun as aides. We had a very pleasant and profitable year, and stopped to refuel in June. At this time we had a party in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Everyone being sufficiently rested by September, 1930, we hopped off again on the second lap of our journey, having this time Mr. Bond as pilot and Paul Morey as chief mechanic with Alberta Fochtman and Gordon Guillaume as his aides. We had every good weather this trip and had clear sailing until we landed in June, 1931, when we enjoyed a picnic at Menonaqua Beach.

In September, 1931, after securing Miss Hesling as pilot and Mildred Behan as chief mechanic with Elden Riley and John Kleber as her aides, we again assembled for the third lap of our flight. The climax of this trip came when we gave a big party for the Seniors. The Junior Hop banquet was held in the Perry Hotel with the dance taking place in the gymnasium, which was decorated as a huge aquarium.

After resting during the summer months we again gathered together for the last lap of our journey, choosing as pilot Miss Furman, with Joseph Murphy, chief mechanic, and Wendell Rehkopf and Lucille Neuman, his aides. During this lap we stopped off long enough to give a very interesting and highly entertaining play, "The Thirteenth Chair." On May 26 we were royally entertained by the Junior Class at the 1933 J-Hop. We arrived at our final destination on June ninth, amid cheering crowds, with eighty-eight surviving passengers.

Seniors In Athletics

The class of 1933 has been a class which has been very active in high school athletics for the past four years. Among the most outstanding figures are those of:

Captain "Sam" Gemmill, all-northern center, who led his gridiron squad to a championship in the Big Six Conference in 1932. For three years "Sam" has been Petoskey's accurate center. "Sam" has also been active in golf and basketball.

George Newson has been Petoskey's star track man. He is a runner of the mile and took second place in the Regional meet at Cadillac last year. George also is a very good golfer, so we hear.

Clarence White, Petoskey's midget forward basketball player, has been the most valuable player to his team. Clarence also was a "driving" halfback on the gridiron, and a star sprinter in the dashes.

Kenneth Truman has been known as the best football guard that P. H. S. has produced in some time. He is also a track man, having active positions in the high hurdles and relay team.

Gordon Guillaume is P. H. S.'s tennis maestro. He was on the P. H. S. team of last year. Gordon has a mean backhand and is very accurate.

Among the other outstanding athletes in P. H. S. are: Frank Harbaugh, in football and basketball; Jim Griswold, in football, basketball and track; John Braun, in football and basketball; John Stewart, in football and basketball; Alfred Johnson, in football and track; Anthony Haas, in football; Leston Hill, in track; Gordon Lake, in track; and "Si" Riley, in basketball and track.

May we express our appreciation to Coach Wolgast and Assistant Coach Bartlett for their hardships and untiring efforts to make our athletic careers a success.

Mabel White               Paul Engle
