like tight-rope walking!  Over the top!  Hold on. Tiny!

Good exercise, isn't it?  Muscles coming up!

Robins looking for worms!  It's not a snowbank, anyway!  American ju-jitsu!
In the fall of '39, as 147 students crossed the threshold of PHS each entered one of the most important periods in his life — these young people were the Freshmen and the Class of '43.

That first year we were under the leadership of Ann Dalton, President, Jim Townsend, Vice-President, and Gerald Jacobs, Secretary-Treasurer. Our social life consisted of a class party in the gym and our picnic at Young State Park.

In our Sophomore year Charles Ballard, Jim Wenz, and Jim Townsend were our officers—president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively. We had several class play-nights and climaxed our year with a picnic at Indian River State Park.

The Class of '43 came into the public eye very definitely when we presented the play "Young April," a light comedy on December 4. Toward the end of the year came that "memorious occasion," the J-Hop, presented by us, the Junior Class, under the leadership of Charles Ballard, Class President, Gerald Jacobs, Vice-President, and Jim Townsend, Secretary-Treasurer. An Hawaiian theme was very skillfully worked out, both at the Bay View Country Club and the gym—pineapples, coconuts, and leis, at the banquet tables, palm trees, a pool, and a moonlit sky, in the gym. For an evening we thought we were in Hawaii. Our eventful year ended with a picnic at Indian River State Park.

Now came the year we were all waiting for — we are Seniors. Charles Ballard was again elected president, Jim Townsend, vice-president, and Gerald Jacobs, secretary-treasurer.

"The House Without a Key," a Charlie Chan murder mystery, scored a success when it was presented as the class play, May 7. From our graduating class of 104, four have left for other duties, and many more will be called soon to serve our country.
