We, the class of '49, present to you the twentieth edition of the Petosegan . . . a book devoted to recapturing the living, active moments of administrators, teachers, and students in the halls of PHS . . .

"Farewell! a word that must be, and hath been,
A sound which makes us linger; — yet — farewell!"

To re-live with us those memorable days, turn now these pages.

Published June, 1949
PETOSKEY HIGH SCHOOL
Petoskey, Michigan
Many, many times these doors have opened at our approach,
Many, many times shall we remember.
Remember, yes . . . the special friends we've met, the classes, games, and dances we've attended . . . Our education, limited before, has grown to greater depths as we learned through books and under special guidance of our teachers . . . We learned, too, how to get along with others, finish tasks begun, and play fair in our sports. And though the doors of higher education have only partly opened to us we are thankful for the help received.

Look long at this picture of Petoskey High and see in it the restless, youthful, sometimes serious spirits that moved back and forth in its crowded halls. Know you now our sentiment for this, our building, and be moved to dream with us the happenings that occurred during the four years that we spent here.
PETOSEGAN STAFF WORKING LATE...

...sometimes even burning the proverbial oil...gobbling quick lunches every Tuesday for the 12:25 meeting in Room 11...holding frequent bull sessions to discuss progress and complications...

filling waste baskets to overflowing with rejects as we search for just the right word...

One April day there was time out at noon for hot dogs in the cafeteria and for Norm and Berne to put on aprons and tackle the dirty work...there were headaches, aspirin tablets, and fun.

We acknowledge indebtedness to: Mr. Spitler for his understanding of and help with our problems; Mr. Luttmann for lending a sympathetic ear; Mr. Stoakes for the counsel of experience; and teachers who supplied names and statistics when we were stuck. — The Staff
To introduce ourselves — we are Pat and Pete O'Segan, seniors at PHS. We invite you to spend a day with us in our school . . . meet our classmates and friends . . . be introduced to our teachers and administrators . . . come to our classes and extra-curricular activities . . . follow us from the building at four o'clock as we go to join the gang at our favorite recreation spots. We hope you will find this day with us interesting . . . and now —
Dedication

To one who has given so much through knowledge, wise guidance, and long service, and who has earned for all time our sincerest affection and appreciation . . . Miss Beebe . . . we dedicate this Petosegan. June 1949 brings her retirement . . . and in going she leaves with the students of Petoskey High School this message: "Vale — be well, do well, farewell."
To Show You That They Tackle Their Job Cheerfully . . . Look carefully and you will see their smiles reflected in the table-top.

In every community there are public-spirited persons who give time and effort to the civic good . . . give it, unrecompensed. The group above is such a one, our School Board. They are our Superintendent, Carl Spitler; E. A. Bremmeyr; Walter O. Dow; Glen C. Townsend, president; Allan McCune; Harry Lucas.

Their is the job of allocating funds, laying out budgets, meeting deficits (or avoiding them), figuring out ways of fitting forty people into space for thirty . . . Theirs the job of keeping school bells ringing. They quicken our confidence in Democracy and the future.
WE CAUGHT TEACHERS WORKING TOO

ADMINISTRATORS — Carl Spitler, Superintendent; Warren Luttmann, Principal; Francis McDowell, Assistant Principal and Guidance Director. They have never failed us in our bewilderment.

PLANNER — A. T. Rolph has arranged those special events which have brought industry and school together; is in charge of speech and cooperative training; he introduced our Career days.

LINGUIST — Miss Nellie Beebe has taught Latin, Spanish, French, and German. She also is an authority in Greek. We shall miss her.
ARTIFICE. With skill in her fingertips and sensitiveness to the unusual, Miss Frances Pailthorp interprets for us the aesthetic and beautiful.

ARBITERS. In the use of the Mother Tongue, that is. They comprise our English staff... Mrs. Rosalie Stech, Mrs. Doris Bailey, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, and Ross Stoakes, Jr. If you don’t know how to say it, ask them.

MAESTROS. Max Smith, band director, and Wilmer Moyer, director of vocal music, are the envy of all of us. They wield the baton.
RESEARCHERS — In their laboratories they delve for the secrets of biology, physics, chemistry. They are Miss Phyllis Patterson, Donald Quade, Stanley Garthe.

EUCLIDEANS — They expound the theory of figures and equations. Russell Brumbaugh, Mrs. Claire Wagoner, Mrs. Helen Cole.

SPORTSMEN — They not only engage in sports but they train others to understand and enjoy them. Mike Corgan and Miss Vera Fuller.
CRAFTSMEN. Miss Elaine Jensen, and Clifford Buckmaster are training students to become secretaries... theirs the skills of shorthand, typing, and accounting.

BUILDERS. With stones of the present and the past they are building for the future... building citizenry. They are our Social Science teachers: Left to right, Walter MacMillan, Mrs. Katherine Inglis, Miss Arlene Van Ness, Mrs. Marguerite Beckley, and Mrs. Maxine Becker.

NEWCOMER. Mrs. Ann Angus joined our staff in January to take over the ungraded room. Here she sits thoughtfully at her desk in Room One.
CRAFTSMEN — in the subtle home-making arts. They have trained others in the essentials of home management, Misses Mary Lou Larson and Marian Williams.

THE SECRETARIAT — With friendly smiles and willing help, Misses Catherine Price, Frieda Heldner, Helen Koper.

OUR NURSE — Our trifling ailments and ills receive care from her dexterous hands, Mrs. Alma Cesar.
FREE RANGER — With three hours in the library, an hour at typing, and an assembly, she calls herself one without a status — Mrs. Clare Dean.

UBIQUITARY — Because he’s in several places at once — or seems to be. Has driver training and health classes, is a coach; Bob Woodruff.

ARTISANS — Leonard Murray, machine shop; Arthur Trelor, industrial arts, Oliver Aho, shop and mathematics, they are training future skilled workers.
Here are people who cater to our comfort... give us bus rides... satisfy our hunger... help us with our literary life. What would we do without them?

"FLETCH"... We can think of no better way to say it — he is known to everybody and a friend to everybody — Fletcher Johnson.

CULINARIANS... The soup we have at noon and the sandwiches that satiate are prepared under the capable hands of these two — Mrs. Rehkopf and Mrs. Whitehill.

BIBLIOPHILIES... They get your books for you — they put them away for you — they mend them when they are torn — they are the student librarians: N. Heileman, J. Eppler, M. L. Eppler, R. L. Johnson, S. Bifoss, A. Eppler, L. McFarland, J. Jones. Not in the picture: E. Annis.
DOORKEEPERS — They let us in at 9:45 and at 12:50 . . . a bit reluctantly, we sometimes think. But who could blame them for that? E. Bellmer, L. Bean, O. Brecheisen. Not in picture, I. Baird.

KP's — Stacks and stacks of dishes they wash after 300 of us eat. We admire their pluck . . . Wilma Stump, Laureen Eppler, Joanne Fettig, Pat Daniels, Velma Hoyt, Joyce Daniels, Alice Rockwell, Joan Deschermier.

MO's — Stands for movie operators — we're being brief. We like visual education so they're in great demand: H. Pierson, J. Hoyt, B. Conant, S. Gokee, F. Rasmussen, N. Sherman in the front row, with G. Hall, L. Walton, and D. Doherty in the back.

THEIR JOBS ARE VARIOUS — but they all count. One who should be is not here, Alfred Johnson. For twenty-five years he was on the maintenance staff of our school . . . retired in January to take a well-earned rest. We hope he will enjoy for many years to come his gardening and other hobbies. It hasn't seemed natural around PHS without him.
As we go you will meet all of them ... but let's begin with the Seniors.

Thirteen long years ago, Pat, Pete, and their classmates began their journey through the halls of education. Kindergarten was a new and wonderful experience ... we mixed work and play, and happily learned the foundations.

When we left elementary school to enter Petoskey High we were surprised by the changes ... in our Junior High years, we began to get acquainted, to learn our way around ... 1945 found us entering Senior High. As Freshmen we elected Bob Dean to be president, Frank Morrison, vice president; Berne Jacobs, secretary-treasurer.

The first year passed quickly ... then we were sophomores ... our leaders — Berne Jacobs, Harold Taylor, Norman Nasson, and Waldo Keating to be class officers ... Our first public appearance was in the play "Boy Wanted" with 23 in the cast ... five per cent of the class was initiated into Honor Society ... we invited the Seniors to dance with us in Candyland — to waltz among licorice sticks and gumdrops, and rhumba among ice cream sodas.

Came the fall of '48 and we returned to school as jaunty Seniors. With executives ... you see them in the picture: Frank Morrison, secretary-treasurer; Barbara Cole, vice president; Waldo Keating, president ... again we took over the stage, presented "Tattletale". The Juniors gave the J-Hop with the theme of "Old South", honored us at the annual Junior-Senior banquet.

"On An Island With You" — for our class picnic at Mackinac Island. Then came the week of weeks, Commencement! With Baccalaureate, Class Night, and presentation of diplomas on June 9 ... and we are grads, 122 of us.

Then ... a look to the future ... to college for some of us, jobs for others. As Pat, Pete, and their classmates go their separate ways they take with them experiences always to remain as reminders of their happy high school days.

BETTY ZAREMSKI — "A maiden fair, a maiden jolly, Opposed to all that's melancholy."
BETTY ZATYSKE — "One who talks little, but thinks much."

In September, the Juniors began their year of many activities. The annual Junior play was given February 17 and 18. With thirteen Juniors and one Sophomore in the cast, "A Date With Judy" entertained young and old alike.

The J-Hop was a memorable event. It brought a bit of the Old South right into the High School gym.

The Junior-Senior banquet, with the Junior class as host was a big event of early summer. The financing of this was done by means of concessions at games and dances, and returns from the Junior play. This banquet has been traditional in old PHS for nearly thirty-five years.

Sophomore, Sophomore, where have you been?
I’ve been a Freshman, tender and green.
Sophomore, Sophomore, where are you bound?
To become a Junior, wise and profound. — (With Apologies)

As to activities . . . here it is in their own words. We gave a successful dance and had a good concession during the basketball game with Charlevoix . . . helped our treasury.

As you look in on the many clubs in PHS you will find our class well represented. And for the future . . . we look forward to the biggest and busiest year of our school life.

These are the class officers:
Pete Wolgast, vice president;
Mike Lashmet, president; Ronnie Treloar, secretary-treasurer.

First row: J. Barney, S. Coveyou, P. Garrett, M. L. Eppler, G. Grigsby, Y. Bushaw, B. Bearup,

LEADERSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, ATHLETICS

First row: B. Lashmit, Y. Lewis, R. Homan, S. Hubbard, R. Johnson, L. McMullen.

THIRTY-THREE
THEY ARE FINISHING THEIR GREEN YEAR

The masculine gender bosses the Freshmen class, too. Lee Wilson, secretary-treasurer; Harry Compton, president, and Dale Johnston, vice president.

They have the conquering spirit and are not to be ignored. They will be the class of '52... the intervening years will be short. We know.

The Junior High... they wait, tho' the halls sometimes resound with the pounding of their impatient. They tell us it is bewildering at first... going from room to room, up and down stairs... finding lockers... getting to class on time.

The Student Council helps them to become oriented, will help more next year. We welcome them back to the Petosegan after an absence of a few years.

Here you see class officers for the Eighth Grade: Dick Spitler, vice president; Bill Todd, president; Norm Wells, secretary-treasurer. Eighth graders prefer masculine leadership.

The Seventh Grade will take its leadership feminine. Here they are... Ruth Ann Bucksteigel, president; Judy Wolgast, secretary-treasurer; Shirley Davy, vice president.
EIGHTH GRADERS HAVE PASSED FIRST MILESTONE

Songs, plays, pictures, and good copy . . . are to be created in these departments. They are the different worlds, set apart from reality; for through them our thoughts can be changed to fit the mood.

Sadness, gaiety — flashing color or pastel shades — seriousness or comedy — mystery stories or adventurous ones — we see them all in this section of our school where each individual may express a personality.

You may more fully understand us when we take you into the art studio to see the many moods expressed on paper with chalk or paints . . . when you listen with us to the choir rehearsals and see the band members zealously playing their instruments; and when you laugh with us as we watch the cast going over the parts for a comedy.
WE NOTICED THAT THE STUDENTS

Ta-ta-tarah! Here comes the PHS band!

On those chilly October evenings when spectators sit warm and comfortable on the bleachers or in their cars our band is on the field marching. They’re at the games, concerts, parades, and festivals.

Led by Majorette Barbara Grisso and directed by Max Smith the Band has claimed many laurels for itself and PHS. After winning a first division rating in the District Festival the proud musicians went to the State Festival and distinguished themselves with a second division rating.
ARE PROUD OF THEIR BANDS

... And have reason to be proud ... these junior high instrumentalists receive experience in the junior bands. As young musicians they look forward to the day when they will take their places as members of the senior band.

When Mother was a girl, they said, "May I have your frame for the next crawl?" In our language — "Cut a rug with me, huh?" . . . in other words we dance to the smooth music of our two orchestras shown on the opposite page. In the top picture you see:

First row: Norman Nasson, Sally Hubbard, David Stone, Robert Dean.
Second row: Mr. Smith, Bill Todd, Berne Jacobs, Robert Fochtman.

In the bottom picture the musicians are:
Front row: Mary Ellen Doyle, Sally Hubbard, Mary Lou Dow, Andrea Mollhagen.
Third row: Ann Pletzer, Pete Wolgast.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

Glee clubs are supposed to be for male voices, in number not less than three (we refer you to the Britannica). Ours is an exception to one rule, but conforms to the other. There are more than three voices; 56 to be exact. In the picture you see:

Second row: Velma Hoyt, Phyllis Carroll, Virginia Kocher, Nita Jean Eppler, Beverly Barnes, Doris Jones, Marjorie Muscott, Bonnie Bearup, Jane Hoffman, Barbara Stezaker, Ethel Niswander, Mary Deschermeyer, Gertrude Miller.
Third row: Audrey Mummet, Phyllis Mann, Rita Homan, Ruth Peterson, Mary Lou Knight, Rosemary Peters, Thelma Kage, Carmen Johnson, Joanne Foster, Nellie Vargo, Bette Pawlak, Carol Craddock, Roberta Hankins, Carol Schneider.
Fourth row: Mr. Moyer, director; Shirley McLellan, Beverly Shanley, Gloria Kring, Sallie Keiser, Carol Berger, May Moore, Donna Dunshee.

Not in picture: Gerrie Malloy, Carol Sims, Genevieve Hamill, Shirley Bushaw, Hanna Witte.
A MUSICAL BULWARK IS OUR CHOIR

Fourth row: D. John, D. Kemp, R. Southwood, L. McNamara, Mr. Moyer, director.

If you had been at PHS on the evening of December 16th you would have heard one of the most significant concerts ever given by the A Cappella Choir. It was the “Christmas Story” from “The Messiah” by Handel — significant because of the difficult score and because it had never been given before by our choir. This was the first appearance of the choir in their new maroon robes fresh from the hands of the designers.

The next big event on their calendar was the trip to Traverse City to attend the qualifying festival in which they received a second division rating.

Listen carefully as we confide to you that our Choir then went from the sublime to the ridiculous; from The Messiah to the role of pirates off the coast of Cornwall. They assumed these roles for the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta “Pirates of Penzance” given on the evenings of April 8 and 9. And well given too.

Leads were taken by June Cannon, Jim Faunce, Marcia Shane, Bob Treloar, Joan Rautio, Don Spitler, Beth Ulrich, Fred Rasmussen, and David Stone. Mr. Moyer of course directed, Mr. Stoakes accompanied, and Mrs. Wagoner and Mr. Stoakes helped with the staging.

FORTY-FOUR
Below you see the rest of them

Second row: A. Pletzer, N. Robinson, R. Crago, S. Pichl, B. Barnes, F. Morrison, D. Still, B. Wooden, E. Niswander, M. L. Knight.

Not in picture: R. Duvernay and V. Gimble.
ENSEMBLES

Musically outstanding have been the groups shown on the opposite page. The Girls Sextette, left to right — Barbara Fryman (accompanist), Anthea Crago, Joanne Fettig, Marcia Shane, Joyce Wurst, Carol Taylor, Beth Ulrich. Favorite among their activities of the year was the carol singing at Christmas time; favorite carols were “Deck the Halls”, “When Jesus was a Little Child”, and “Silent Night.”

Equally generous with their talent have been the boys who make up the Octette — Seated, Bob Treloar, Jim Pettis. Standing, Fred Rasmussen, Frank Morrison, David Stone, Jim Faunce, Don Spittle, Ron Treloar. The Octette participated in the annual Vocal Festival at Lansing.

Both groups are under the direction of Mr. Moyer.

DRAMATICS

“The play’s the thing” . . . especially when it’s played at PHS and by our Dramatics Club. One act plays they have presented in assembly this year include “Write Me A Love Scene” and “The Perfect Date”. Members of the Club are:

First row: Merla Mueller, Lila Stark, Phyllis Mann, Madeline Fettig, Joretta Johansen, Nancy Wilbur, Doris Jones, Mrs. Steeh, director.

Third row: Luana Russell, Barbara Grisso, Anthea Crago, Thelma Kage, Joan Fleshman, Rita Homan, Bruce Reed, Bob Miller, Frank Morrison, Mary Lou Bucksteigel, Carol Craddock, Helen Beaudry, Patricia Muchlenbeck, Betty Colley, Sally Hubbard.

A DREAM COME TRUE

A mural grew in Senior Assembly of PHS — from a dream in the mind of Miss Pailthorp to a finished painting when the last palette of color was applied.

We include it here because five members of the class of '49 stood on a scaffold against the north wall and blended the burnt sienna and emerald hues which you see on the canvas. They were Carlie Broman, Dick Curtis, Carolyn Switzer, Joyce Wurst, and Carol Taylor. You also see Mr. Hildebrand and Miss Foley who directed the work and the late Noel Feather, another student-artist.

The mural was dedicated June 3, 1947, following Class Day exercises. The palettes they had used, their names inscribed thereon, were presented to the artists then.

It is not the only dream of Miss Pailthorp's which has come to fruition . . . the art program each month is hooked up at some point with interests of the community. To give you an idea, we present a yearly art calendar:

September — Visits to art centers about Petoskey.
October — Color tours for sketching.
November — Studies in design, featuring Ottawa Indians.
December — Decorating for Christmas, observing decorations in homes and churches.
January — Creating themes for winter sports.
February — Designing dresses; costuming.
March — Gardening . . . "Let's Make Petoskey the Garden City of the North."
April — Home-Planning . . . "Better Homes Month."
May — Tying in year's units of work, including repeat visits to Petoskey studios and excursions by bus to outlying studios.

Our studio is an inspirational spot . . . where many dreams come true.
Pictured here are two modern Demosthenes: David Stone, who won a third place in the State "Tuberculosis" oration contest, and Ann Pletzer who won the local "Democracy" speech contest and received honorable mention in the national contest. The class numbering 20 was taught by Mr. Rolph.

Hi-light Staff

COPY, COPY, COPY . . .

"Will I ever get this story in on time?"

Every two weeks we have heard this wail from members of the staff; Pletzer and C. T. Dean start pounding on the reporters' heads for more news ... R. Dean begins working on his feature stories ... Switzer starts on exchanges ... Broman bawls for more ads ... and Mr. Barnes tries to get enough inside pages. Despite all this, the students of PHS get the paper on time.

Around a campfire on Petoskey beach one evening in May members of the journalism staffs were initiated into Quill and Scroll, International Honor Society for high school journalists. They were Carlie Broman, Ann Pletzer, Barbara Cole, Marcia Shane, Carolyn Switzer, Sallie Scoggins, Barbara Grisso, June Cannon, Ingrid Inglis, Bob Dean, Dick Curtis, Virginia Olsen, Anthea Crago, Sally Dalton, Margery Lawrence, Betty Colley, Ethel Niswander. Mrs. Dean is adviser.

Basis of eligibility is journalistic experience and high scholastic standing. Others will be eligible next year.
September —
This is the month for football games — we cheer for our team,
In the gym and on the field you’ll hear coach-team-pep-steam!

October —
Hallowe’en presents its faces, masks, and erie games,
But here we have a problem . . . first six-weeks’ exams.

November —
That Thanksgiving holiday rolls around,
Jack Frost nips our noses; also the ground.

December —
Gladness in hearts of men, Christmas bells ringing,
Carols heard everywhere, Choir members singing.

January —
Happy New Year everyone, I toast your health and mine,
Rounds of parties, lots of dances, and the “coke” was fine.

February —
Basketball and football over, what to do today?
Why, I know the very thing; we’ll see the Junior Play!

March —
Flash! Epidemic seizes school — what an awful ailing,
Everyone who has Spring Fever seems afraid of failing.

April —
Time now for the Operetta and the Senior Play,
And also Easter vacation; all we think okay.

May —
Now the Seniors are lamenting, only six weeks more,
At this time in other years their spirits used to soar.

June —
This is the time for all farewells, some are coming back;
For those who don’t, we wish success with another pack.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

There is a link between the administration and student body of our school — the Student Council. On frequent occasions you may see them, come together to wrestle with those complexities which arise when student meets student; in other words, they work for improvement in relationships among students, faculty, and administration.

From where do they come? One from each advisory, grades 7 through 12; the president of each class; and five advisers — Mrs. Wagoner and Mr. MacMillan from Junior High, Miss Patterson and Mr. McDowell, from Senior High; and our Principal, Mr. Luttmann.

What has the Council done this year? Instituted a plan for orientation of new students; taken over direction of dancing classes begun by Y-Teen and Hi-Y clubs; drawn up and ratified a new constitution; provided refreshments for our own and visiting teams after basketball games; sent thank-you notes to all chaperones of school dances; engineered clean-up campaigns and campaigns for improving the appearance of our school; and acted as salesmen for the Petosegan.

Besides, they have undertaken innumerable small services which deserve recognition.

Seated: Mrs. Wagoner, Mr. MacMillan, J. Curtis, B. Jacobs, Miss Patterson, Mr. McDowell.

FIFTY-ONE
First row: A. Pletzer, D. Clinton, B. Shanley, M. Shane.
Third row: G. Haley, Y. Bushaw, H. Beaudry.

Third row: P. Mann, M. Lawrence, R. Homan.

Third row: P. Mann, M. Lawrence, R. Homan.

One morning in December we arrived at school to find evergreen wreaths on all the doors... "Silent Night, Holy Night" echoing in the halls. The Y-Teens had been at work.

This was not the only time... in October they served a luncheon to 250 visiting teachers... at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter they made up gift baskets for an adopted family... had bake-goods sales, sponsored concessions, to make money... decorated the gym for the Winter Sports ball... contributed to Community Chest and Junior Red Cross.

Along with service, there was social life too... the formal in December in a "Winter Wonderland" — trees glistening against a background of black and white, with notes prancing around the gym to make you want to dance... later the banquet, when the dining hall of the Presbyterian Church was gay with daffodils and narcissi arranged by the Y-Teens who also cooked and served the food.

Since this was a joint event, the Hi-Y joined in the fun, helped financially, and provided the speaker.

At last came the picnic... Seniors were toasted, presented with gifts, in a woodland setting where an outdoor fire burned brightly. New officers were initiated, retiring officers praised for their year of service... Those officers were: Carolyn Switzer, president; Ingrid Inglis, vice president; Susan McMullen, secretary; Ethel Niswander, treasurer.
THE AROMAS that assail our nostrils so agonizingly often come from their banana cream pies or chocolate eclairs. They also learn sewing, decorating, child care . . . even learn how to darn socks, boys! F. H. A. girls give aid in Red Cross Drives, send two members to F. H. A. camp, raise funds through baked goods sales, have parties, and elect officers. Officers for ’48-’49 were Joretta Johansen, president; Nancy Wilbur, vice-president; Linda Willson, secretary; Linda Feather, treasurer; Esther Everts, parliamentarian; and Doris Jones, song leader.
Seated: M. Clausen, M. Parks, R. Johnson, A. Mollhagen, S. Coveyou.

"The Sub Deb Club is made up of girls from grades nine through twelve . . . Purpose is to learn working and playing cooperatively and pleasantly together." Organized in 1938 . . . through the enthusiasm of its members it has become one of the most fun-loving groups in school.

Social activities of the year began with initiation dinner for seven new members. The next big event, a "Winter Party," at the cottage of Dr. W. H. Parks. The successful year ended with a progressive dinner, at which small remembrances were given to honorary members.

The officers for the year are Sallie Scoggin, president; Mary Lou Bucksteigel, secretary; Mary Lou Dow, secretary; and Joan Usher, treasurer. Advisor is Mrs. Marguerite Beckley.
"Fight, Team, Fight!" was among the cries echoing through the gym as the Petoskey cheering section racked the rafters with its shouts. Promotion of an active school spirit, good sportsmanship, and enthusiasm among the student body were goals undertaken by hustling members of the Pep Club.

This year the pepsters chose as their leaders Don Kemp, president; Ann Cahill, vice-president; Andrea Mollhagen, secretary; and Janet Usher, treasurer; Miss Patterson was faculty adviser. These leaders and their followers have presented this year a series of pep meetings. One long to be remembered was the burning of an effigy, followed by a snake dance through town.

A new blue and white banner was presented to the school and proudly displayed at basketball games.

D. Kemp, Miss Patterson, Advisor, J. Faunce, J. Bailey, D. Ballard.

B. Wooden, L. McNamara, K. Crawford, Beard, B. Ulrich.
HI-Y

The meeting will now come to order! David Stone attempts to bring order as Berne Jacobs delinquenty writes up minutes of the last meeting.

As the meeting progresses, David brings up old and new business while Robert Dean entertains the group with humorous anecdotes. Fred Rasmussen arrives as refreshments are being served... meeting closes with small groups conversing about school activities and other interesting topics.

Outstanding projects of the year included inaugurating dancing instruction, providing a happy Christmas with a party and gifts for a group of Kentucky school children. It is the duty of every member of the Club to live up to the high ideals of the National Hi-Y organization. Our chapter has 35 members.

Officers are: David Stone, president; Donald Spitler, vice president; Berne Jacobs, secretary; Norman Nasson, treasurer, succeeding Jack Garrett who finished in January.

FIFTY-SEVEN VARSISY CLUB

First row: D. Zink, L. Oosting, W. Keating, L. Eaton, Mr. Corgan, advisor.

Varsity Club, organized by Coach Steve Sebo in '39, is in its eleventh year. To gain membership . . . you must win an athletic award or letter, rank high among fellow athletes in sportsmanship, character, personality, cooperative spirit.

The club has no dues, it is free from affiliation with other schools. Activities are decided upon by members, under the supervision of advisers. Main events this year were the cooperative dinner with the Athletic Board, and the Varsity Award banquet given by men's service clubs of Petoskey.

Officers are: William Wolf, president; Waldo Keating, vice-president; Lyle Eaton, secretary-treasurer.

Not in picture: Lex Potter, John Bricker, Jack Matthews.

Season's Football Record, One of the Best

Football...brisk autumn weather...treks to the stadium...before-game excitement...kick-off followed by rising cheers from the crowd...first touchdown...the winning...the smile from the coach...this is FOOTBALL!

PHS gridders ended up a victorious season with five wins, two losses, and one tie...a record to remember. One gridiron hi-light was the excitement-packed Traverse game with the Blue and White winning 18-14. Fans still talk of the fast finish...the clock ticking away with two minutes to go...the pass from Keating to Taylor...then the razzle dazzle, the winning touchdown. The other hi-light was the shellacking given the Canadian Soo in the clash on Curtis field...the upset of the year when the Northmen took revenge with a 21-0 score.

Coach Corgan can well be proud of his team. The season’s record is one of the greatest in many years. Seniors who sparked the varsity line-up will be missed...they are: Waldo Keating, Harold Taylor, Norman Nasson, Lyle Eaton, Jack Matthews, Dana Potts, Skip Crawford, Wilfred Sterzik, Jerry Friend, Larry Oosting, John Bricker, and Lex Potter.

Track Team Is A Strong Opponent

The thrill of a race . . . cinders flying from the track . . . the pounding echo of running feet . . . breaking the record . . . the glory of winning . . . this is the thin-clad sport, TRACK.

The '49 track team is hoping to break several records in meets on the cinderpaths this spring. Don Spitler will replace Jack Garrett in the mile race. Records are expected to shatter with Dana Potts, Jack Matthews, and Lyle Eaton tossing the shot.

With a balance of juniors, sophomores, and freshmen on the team, Coach Buckmaster's thinclads will have a successful year.
Coach Buckmaster blows his whistle... players all rush to gather in a group for assignments... all, that is, except Jack Matthews who is masterfully showing the girls his dashing, driving dog shots...

So goes basketball practice in the 1948-49 season... but regardless of such "negligence" our team played good ball when game time arrived, ending the season above the .500 mark... winning 8, losing 7.

The year's starting lineup had five seniors with four more of the same as substitutes... it was their last year and they gave the best they had to make it a winning season... In the picture below you see our First Team:

JUNIOR VARSITY

Under the direction of Coach Corgan they actually astounded people of Petoskey by their fiery, spirited basketball. The team is composed of Freshmen and Sophomores who hope to make the Varsity in years to come.

Because graduation is taking so many of this year's first team, players from second squad will be moving up to fill the vacancies. With the excellent preliminary training given by coaches to young athletes we look forward to some fine teams in the future.

In the picture below you see members of our second squad . . .

Junior High Boys Learn Early Fundamentals of Basketball

Young bodies stretch for that all important jump ... young bodies acquire the vital development of the fundamentals ... footwork, passing, shooting, and teamwork ... junior high basketball is the beginning of future basketball players of PHS.

The teams, coached by Stanley Garthe, play the junior high teams of surrounding schools. If the boys learn the value of sportsmanship and teamwork while on the junior high teams, when they advance to high school teams, they have the foundation which is necessary for better players and better teams.

Third row: N. Wells, D. Myers, D. Taylor, A. Yentz.

SIXTY-FOUR
Many outdoor enthusiasts of our school joined this newly organized group and enjoyed weekly excursions to the Boyne Mountain Ski Club for lessons on the finer points of this winter sport.

Top picture: A. Cahill, B. Cole, D. Wendz, G. Bauer, J. Rehkofp, F. Fitzpatrick, D. Ball; Mr. Victor, instructor.

PINSPELLERS

Girl keglers of our school, known as the Pinspillers, have made bowling a sport of prominence. The organization is a favorite among the girl athletes...many enjoyable hours they have spent at Petoskey Recreation Center...they are led by Shirley Piehl, president, Miss Fuller, faculty advisor.

Third row: A. Niszander, R. Crago, S. Piehl.

A cheer lifts to the air . . . in the gym or at the stadium . . . wherever the Blue and White are losing or winning . . . you will find our handsome squad of cheerleaders boosting the team to victory.

TEAM BOOSTERS

G. A. C.'s

A shout, a cheer from the bench . . . a scramble of excited energetic girls grabbing for a ball . . . there is great activity in the gym when the G. A. C.'s are playing basketball or on the playground when a game of softball is in progress.

The girl athletes chose Jean Bachelor, president; Carolyn Switzer, vice president; Bobbie Wilson, secretary-treasurer, to serve as club officers.

Front row: B. Wilson, J. Bachelor, B. Ulrich.

Last row: J. Pierce, A. Stolt, R. Bachelor, J. Lippincott, L. McMullen.

Not in picture: C. Switzer, S. McClellan.

TEENNS

Their litheness on the court . . . the back-hand strokes . . . the powerful drives . . . have distinguished our tennis teams, under the guidance of Mr. McDowell. In '48 they won all contests, tied Cadillac for Regional Class B Title and brought home the trophy.

Prospects for the '49 season look bright, for the team has five returning lettermen and many new hopefuls who will be competing for a place on the squad.
SENIORS

“To bear forward the searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition for higher values of life, and to serve”... aims of the National Honor Society.

Ours, the Petosega Chapter, was organized in 1925 by the principal, Harold S. Bates. The Society now lists 309 members, elected from the upper quarter of their classes on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service during their high school years.

Last year seven members of the class of ‘49 were elected to the Society. At the formal initiation ceremony for these members, our faculty adviser, Miss Beebe, was made an honorary member in recognition of her years of service to the organization.

Early this year, eleven Seniors were elected and were initiated in an open meeting before the student body.

Later eight Juniors were chosen... too late to appear in the picture. They are Joyce Bailey, Dorothy Ballard, Anne Burns, Don Kemp, Alma Morris, Susan McMullen, Shirley Piehl, and Sallie Scoggin. Their initiation took place before parents and faculty members. This group will be the nucleus of the organization next year.

Third row: David Stone, Carolyn Switzer, Norman Nasson, Barbara Cole, Robert Treloar, Barbara Temple, Berne Jacobs.

SEVENTY-EIGHT
One whom we have been accustomed to see on any tour through our High School was Mrs. Grace Jessop. Today she is missing; she passed away in January ... the inspiration of her service and ideals remains.

We have completed our tour ... the day has passed ... the years have passed ... And now —
