

2022 BABY & TODDLER SUMMER READING

June 3 – August 12

TALK

Tell your baby what you are doing while you are doing it.

Play with cups and water. Use words like, "full-empty" and "in-out."

Reread a book and talk about your child's favorite parts.

Share a picture book, naming colors, shapes, and characters.

SING

Make up your own verses for the song, "If you're happy and you know it."

Sing along to a book! Find a book that features a song.

Sing the ABC song.

Say and do the motions to one of your favorite rhymes.

READ

Let your child handle their own book and turn the pages.

Read a story and act out movements to the action words.

Point to the words and pictures as you read a book together.

Take a walk outdoors and point out words on signs.

WRITE

Let your child tear paper or peel tape.

Finger-paint with your child.

Play with play dough.

Hide something under a blanket and have your child find it.

PLAY

Count your fingers together.

Blow bubbles for your baby to track with their eyes.

Look for shapes around the house.

Count a basket of objects and sort them into related groups.
